

Community News

April is Earth Month, a time to celebrate the natural beauty that surrounds us here in West Seattle. At Link Apartments, we're inspired by the nearby coastline, green spaces, and walkable neighborhoods that make it easy to connect with the outdoors. This month is a reminder that small, mindful choices can make a lasting impact—both within our homes and throughout our community.

Local Feature

Maharaja Cuisine

Calling all Indian food lovers, this one's for you. Maharaja Cuisine of India always delivers with rich, flavorful dishes and a variety of naans that pair perfectly with their curries. The Goat Bhuna, a chef's special, is a standout and a must-try on your next visit.

Live Well

Free State Park Day!

April is Earth Month, and at North Coast Living, it's a time to reconnect with the natural beauty that surrounds our communities. Here in West Seattle, residents can enjoy local Earth Month events, neighborhood walks, and outdoor experiences that highlight the season. On April 22, Washington State offers free access to all state parks—an incredible opportunity to explore scenic coastlines, forest trails, and nearby escapes without the usual entry fee. It's a perfect way to spend the day outdoors and celebrate the environment right in our own backyard.
