

Community News

Welcome to May at Link. There's so much to enjoy around West Seattle this month—from the West Seattle Farmers Market every Sunday to waterfront walks along Alki Beach and seasonal events popping up around The Junction. With longer days and plenty happening in the neighborhood, it's the perfect time to get out, explore, and enjoy everything the area has to offer.

What Residents are Saying

Ben N.

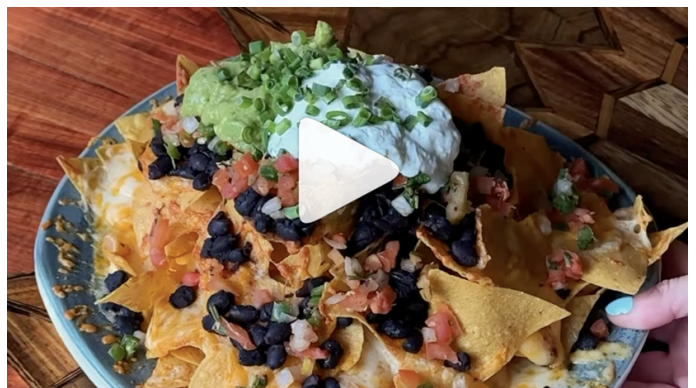

"Just moved in today. But so far, great. They fixed a minor issue. Were super courteous and friendly. Apartment is great, clean, and exactly what I expected.

Local Feature

Matador

We love a good happy hour, and this one delivers every time. Matador in West Seattle is a go-to for a reason—happy hour every day (yes, even weekends) and twice a day. More time for snacks, apps, and maybe even extra cheese on the Grande Nachos if that’s your thing. With bites like the dip flight, street tacos, crispy brussels sprouts, and more, it’s easy to see why it’s been voted Best Happy Hour year after year.

Live Well

Mental Health Awareness Month

We're proud to share highlights from our 2025 Impact Report, which reflects the progress made across all North Coast Living communities, including right here at Link. Our commitment to creating spaces that support both people and the environment has been part of how we operate for years, and today it shows up through initiatives that focus on sustainability, community connection, and overall well-being. From our environmental efforts to the culture we're building through events, this work helps create a stronger, more vibrant community for our residents.
